

Saluki* Trains 390 and 391 Illini* Trains 392 and 393

Monday, December 15, 2014

Track work being performed by Canadian Pacific Railroad will affect the Saluki and Illini trains on December 15, described as below:

Southbound Service

- Trains 391 and 393, which normally operate between Chicago and Carbondale, will terminate at Champaign, where passengers will be provided bus service to and from the following stops: Mattoon, Effingham, Centralia, Du Quoin and Carbondale.
- Due to longer travel times between stations, southbound buses representing Trains 391 and 393 will operate on later schedules than the respective trains. Contact Amtrak for revised bus schedules.

Northbound Service

- Trains 390 and 392, which normally operate between Carbondale and Chicago, will originate at Champaign. Passengers will be provided bus service from Carbondale to Du Quoin, Centralia, Effingham, Mattoon and Champaign.
- Northbound buses representing Trains 390 and 392 will operate on earlier schedules than the respective trains. Contact Amtrak for revised bus schedules.
- Train 390 will operate on a later schedule, departing Champaign at 10:44 a.m., 30 minutes later than current train schedule, and operating 30 minutes later at all remaining stations on the route.
